Dear Sadh Sangat

RE: COVID-19: Restrictions in England from 17 May – Step 3 - Places of Worship

- Up to 6 people or 2 households will be able to meet indoors and up to 30 people outdoors.
- The public can make informed, personal decisions on close contact. Close contact continues to carry a risk.
- International travel can begin allowing people to go on foreign holidays to 'green' list countries. Strict border control measures will remain in place.
- Face coverings will no longer be needed in classrooms or communal areas. Twice weekly home testing will remain to control infection rates.
- 30 people will be able to attend a support or parent and child group.
- organised adult sport and exercise classes can resume indoors.
- Clinically extremely vulnerable people are advised to consider taking extra precautions to reduce risk of exposure and minimising social interactions.

Funerals: The number of people able to attend a funeral will be determined by the number that can be safely accommodated in the Gurdwara with social distancing measures in place.

Weddings: 30 people will now be able to attend weddings in the Gurdwara with social distancing measures in place.

Life-Cycle events: 30 people will now be able to attend commemorative, standalone life-cycle events in the Gurdwara with social distancing measures in place.
